Equalities & Diversity - Feminism

Feminism is the belief that "every girl has an equal opportunity to reach her full potential and change the world, regardless of race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age or ability." Girl Up

"Feminism is the belief in social, economic, and political equality of the sexes." Encyclopedia Britannica

In other words, Feminism is the belief that everyone has the same rights in every aspect of life.

Invisible Women by Caroline Criado Perez

Invisible Women shows us how, in a world largely built for and by men, we are systematically ignoring half the population. It exposes the gender data gap – a gap in our knowledge that is at the root of perpetual, systemic discrimination against women, and that has created a pervasive but invisible bias with a profound effect on women's lives.

Feminists Don't Wear Pink and Other Lies by Scarlett Curtis

Personal stories from actors, writers, and activists explore the contradictions and complications at the heart of the movement. By bridging the gap between feminist hashtags and scholarly texts, these essays bring feminism into clear focus. This empowering collection shows how a diverse group of women found their voice, and it will inspire others to do the same.
